In Memoriam

To our classmate, Dorothy J. Sanderson, who passed away on August 20, 1951, we give this, our tribute.

"We have but faith; we cannot know;
For knowledge is of things we see;
And yet we trust it comes from Thee
A beam of darkness; let it grow."

THE JUNIOR CLASS

Hats off to the juniors
Who day by day
With Wayne as president
Make strides in every way.
For Interclass Pat and Anabel
Did well on the lighter side;
For seriousness Dan and Gloria
Did so well that they need never hide.
Our stars on the floor Ed and Jack
Many baskets did shoot,
While Ralph, Fred, and Jim starred
In football, and made us feel proud.
Bill and Toni are the cutest couple,
And active in all sorts of ways,
For things to be done, the two Pats
Their staunchness, ne'er could we doubt.

Remember the couple at carnival time
That the class chose as King and Queen?
Certainly Jean and Alan will remember that--
With $15- did we sing!
We always will remember those two old Fords,
That Don and Merv used to drive.
Tearing down Grand Avenue
How did they stay alive?
In girls basketball, Betty was head
Won just about every game,
Mary Ann, Jean, Mildred, and Shelly
Will certainly ride on to fame.
For music, always at contest time
The girls, Helen and Shirley
Tried to win, but Arden and Tom
Caught up with them in a hurry.

Mary Bea's and Connie's lovely eyes,
Will live in the hearts of many.
And Beverly and Ellen cut quite a figure
On skates, almost like Sonja Henie.
If you want to have a good time and laugh
It's Dick, a new boy this year.
While Bill Bale is the artist of the class
About him, plenty, you'll hear.
Peg can cook, no question raised.
A good wife to somebody she'll make.
Since Shirley's engaged, it's about time
She learned to bake a cake.
Bob, who is letterer on the annual staff
With his compass and pencil did work,
Roger and Dick are quiet and friendly
But their duties ne'er did they shirk.

As years may come and years may go
You'll hear the echo in the hall,
Of George and Johnny's raucous laugh
With fond amusement you'll recall.

VOCAL MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The vocal music department of Ada High School, is under the direction of Mr. Stanley Salter. The department consists of a mixed choir of fifty voices, a freshman girls' chorus of twenty voices, and a girls' glee club of fifty voices.

The freshmen girls worked on the same music as the girls' glee club, but made their only appearance in the Spring Concert. The other groups participated in several activities. They were: A minstrel presented by the choir on February 1 and 2. The Annual Spring Concert, the Community Institute, the District Solo and Ensemble Contest in Lima, and the District Choir Contest at Ohio Northern.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an organization of representatives elected from the student body for the purpose of fostering better relations between the administration and the students. The members for 1951-52 are as follows:

Glenn Ernsberger	President
Phil Gilmore	Vice President
Gloria Nichols	Secretary
Joan Ream	Treasurer
Ed Baker	Sgt. at Arms
Miss Mabel Crawford	Adviser
Clair Kindle	Gerald Dearth
Wayne Fleming	Robert LaRue
Joe Harrod	Phyllis Gudakunst
Edison Long

The members of the Student Council are elected annually from each class. The Council, with their adviser, Miss Mabel Crawford, meet every first and third Monday, alternating third and eighth periods. The Council tries to help solve various problems of the student body which arise during the year.

Some of the projects of the Student Council were the sale of activity tickets, helping purchase the popcorn popper, purchasing the Christmas tree and decorating it, and taking care of the business part of the concessions at the games. They make the arrangements for the Interclass Contest and the Banquet. The psychologist, Dr. Guy Morris Bingham, was also sponsored by the Student Council.

There are three main committees of the Student Council. The social committee supervises and plans all the junior high and senior high parties and dances. This committee is headed by Joan Ream with Phyllis Gudakunst and Gloria Nichols as assistants. Their committee members are: Sonja Clay, Dorothy Jump, Carolyn Leslie, Jerry Hooper, Bobby LaRue, Edison Long, and Nancy Allen.

The assembly committee plans and schedules all the programs for the year. This committee is composed of the vice presidents of each class, headed by Phil Gilmore and assisted by Joe Harrod, and Wayne Fleming. The other members are: Janet Welsh, Ed Baker, Marjorie Fleming, Valera Iams, Jack Fensler, and Howard Umphress.

The hall monitors are headed by Clair Kindle. Their duty is to keep the halls in order between periods. The regular monitors are Clarence Garver, Clair Kindle, Howard Klingler, Dick Marshall, Neal Paugh, Bill Gilbert, Bob Read, Peeter Mannik, Ronnie Parshall, Donald Van Atta, Don Zimmerly, Glenn Ernsberger, Phil Gilmore, Ed Baker, Wayne Fleming, Jack Suhr, Fred Runser, and Danny Snyder. The substitutes are Russell Dearth, Joe Klingler, Larry Dudgeon, and Arden Searson.

Exchanges from other schools

During the 1951-52 school year the Purple & Gold has published twelve issues. The printing class printed each issue.

The Dustpan column had its name changed to the Peepin' Pat column. "Who's Who" and "Tales on Teachers" were continued from last year, while Class-I-Lied Ads was a new feature this year.

The staff tried to bring interesting news to the students and encouraged any student to help on the paper. For the first time since the paper has been started, the grade teachers wrote up the news of their classes and it was published in each issue as a regular column.

ANNUAL STAFF

During the past school year the annual staff has put a good deal of time and effort into this publication. We have not found it easy to put out an annual. There have been many corrections to make and mistakes to rectify but after a year's labor we are ready to present the finished product to the student body. We hope you will enjoy it and that, in the years to come, it will be a reminder of the people and activities which made up this school year.

The Y-Teens are a division of the Young Women's Christian Association. The purpose of the club is "To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing, in our common life, those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians."

The members of the club are the senior, junior, and sophomore girls. The sophomore girls join at the beginning of the second semester in a special recognition service. Meetings are held bi-weekly during the eighth period. The programs consist of speakers, discussions, talent programs, and music.

Some of this year's events included the Christmas party with Kenton, selling potato chips along with the other Y-Teen clubs of the state, the Mother and Daughter Banquet, and the dance with Hi-Y.

Y-Teens, as a service project, sent chocolate to the children overseas for Christmas. They also sponsored the Easter Services together with the Hi-Y. During Y-Teen Week they attended church in a body, dressed in club colors, and were hall monitors.

All boys of the upper three grades are eligible to join this organization of our school.

The purpose of Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character. This the boys try to achieve through clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship and clean living.

In contrast with previous years, this group met every other week. The well planned programs included speakers, movies, and discussions. Potlucks, playnights, swimming, and skating parties were held throughout the year.

Hi-Y and Y-Teens held joint meetings and joined in presentation of the religious services during Holy Week.

The purpose of F. H. A. is to promote interest in home and family life, make a better community, and to promote international good will.

This organization is composed of girls in the upper four grades who have had one or more years of home economics. This year F. H. A. had 50 members.

The meetings are held on the first Monday and third Thursday of every month.

Initiation of new members was held on October 1. Events of the year have included a formal dance, a Christmas party, and a mother daughter banquet. They closed the year with a farewell party for the seniors in F. H. A.

For their projects this year, they worked for the Junior Homemaker Degree, Chapter Homemaker Degree, and State Homemaker Degree.

Motto: Learning to do, doing to learn, learning to live, living to serve.

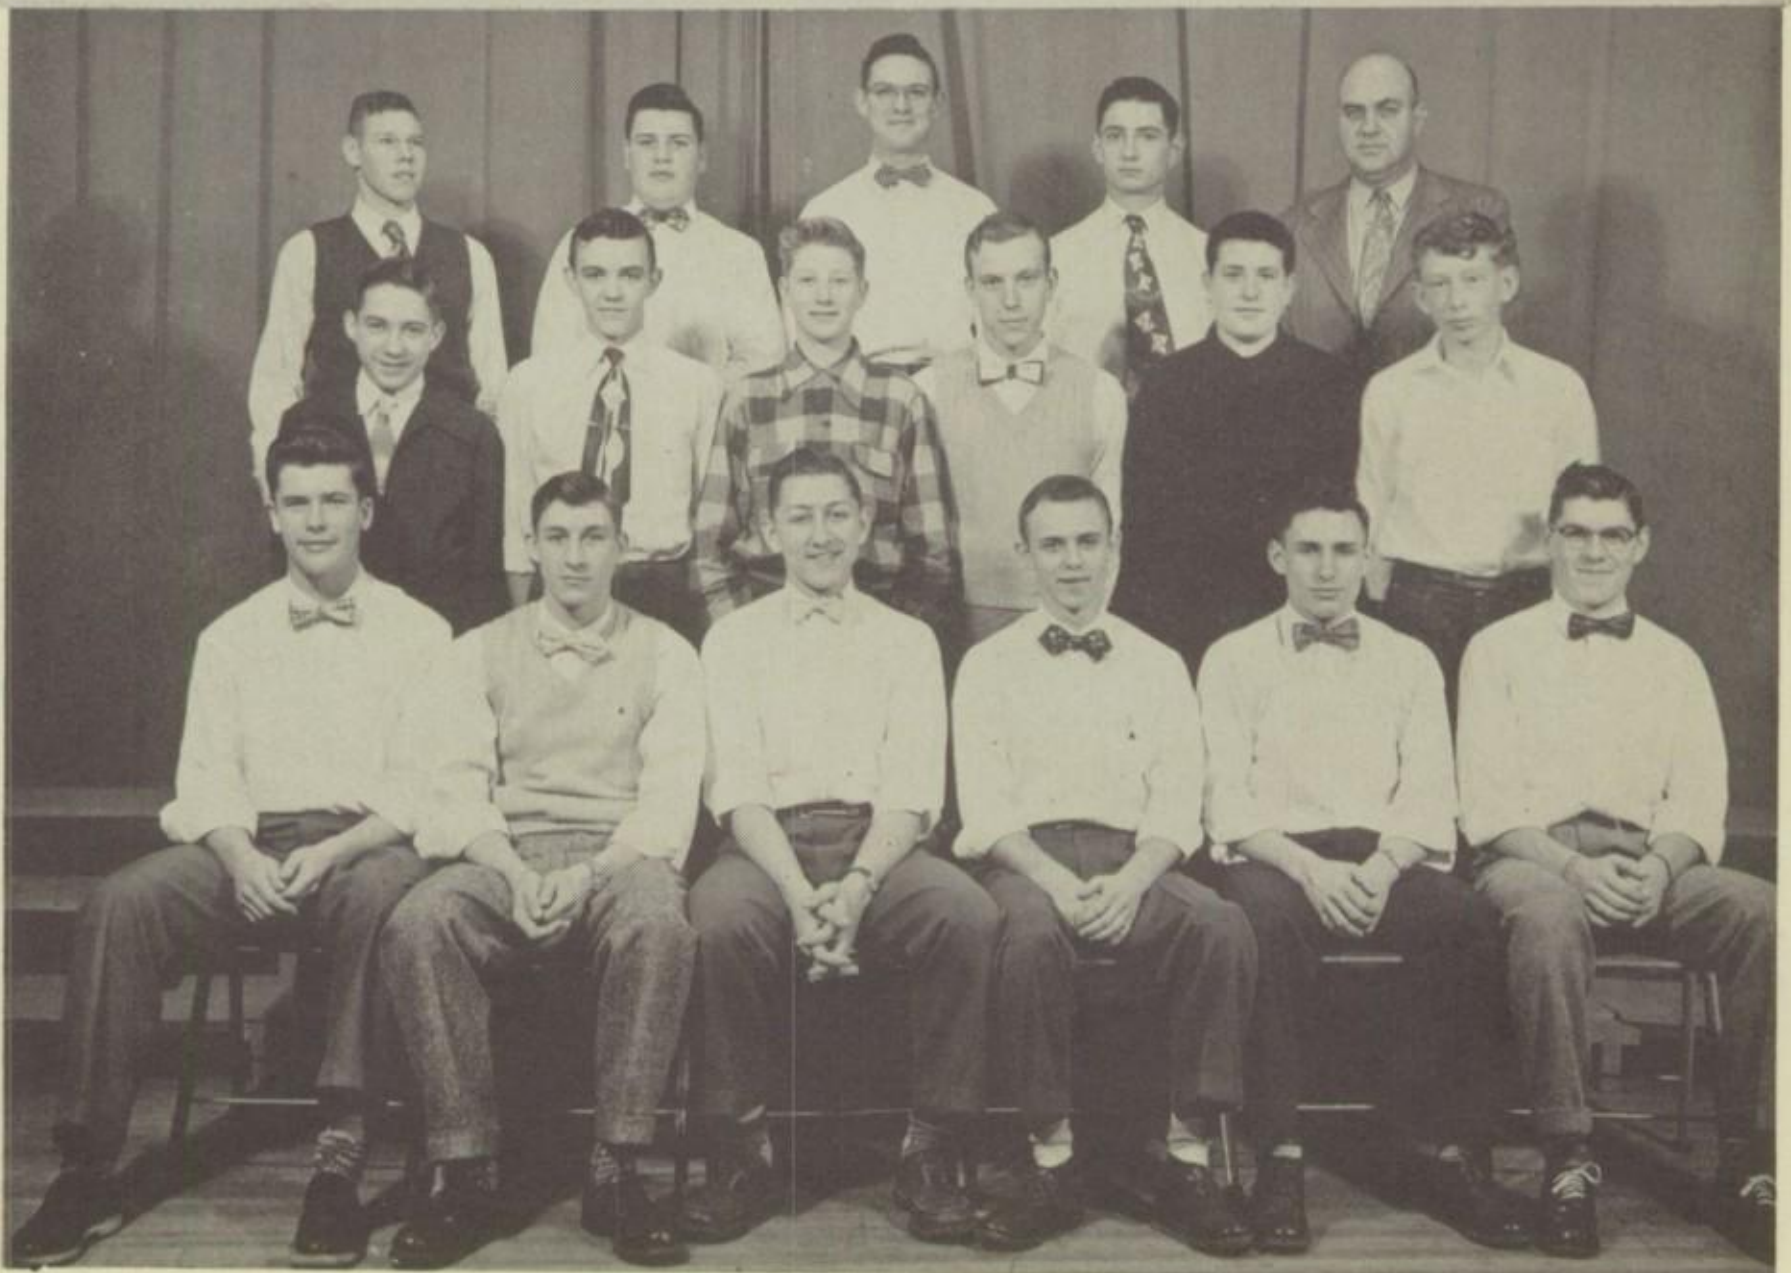

Purpose: To improve agriculture and to improve themselves as future farmer citizens.

The club has four goals which each member strives for: Green hand Future Farmer, State Farmer, and American Farmer. Those pertain to farming, investments, earning, and leadership. These goals are not easily obtained.

G.A.A. is an organization of the girls in the upper four grades who are interested in athletics. This year the organization had the largest membership in several years with ninety-two members.

The purpose of G.A.A. is to create more interest and enthusiasm in girls sports.

To win a letter, sportrate, or pin a girl must earn a required number of points. Some of the many ways to earn these points are: playing in the noon games, refereeing at noon games, selling concessions at football, and basketball games, being an officer in G.A.A., being a cheerleader, or attending the club meetings.

G.A.A. has one meeting a month; this is held on the third Monday night of the month. The first meeting of this year was the initiation of the freshmen at a weiner roast at Memorial Park. Other highlights of the year were: a talk by Miss Lourie, of Wooster College, the mother-daughter pot-luck, a chili supper, the valentine dance, a swimming party, and a skating party. The last meeting of the year was a farewell banquet for the seniors in G.A.A. at which the awards were given to those who earned them.

CHEERLEADERS

Sally Allen, Gloria Miller, Antoinette Anastasi, and Millie Baughman, four active members of G.A.A., were chosen by the student body as cheerleaders for '51 and '52. They led us through the year with much enthusiasm and many rousing cheers.

"THE UNEXPECTED GUEST"

The cast of characters for the senior class play which was presented on May 2 and 3 was as follows:

Paul Evans Upton.	Howard Klingler
Mary Upton.	Joyce Harrod
George Upton.	Donavin Zimmerly
Eleanor Upton.	Sonja Clay
Harry Huston.	Ronald Parshall
Delivery Man.	Glenn Ernsberger
John Blowing.	Phil Gilmore
Joseph Krumley.	Alan Harp
Prince Tashum Sumbore. . .	Peeter Mannik
Mrs. Greeley.	Sally Allen
Helen Greeley.	Phyllis Reams
Director.	Albert Melkonian

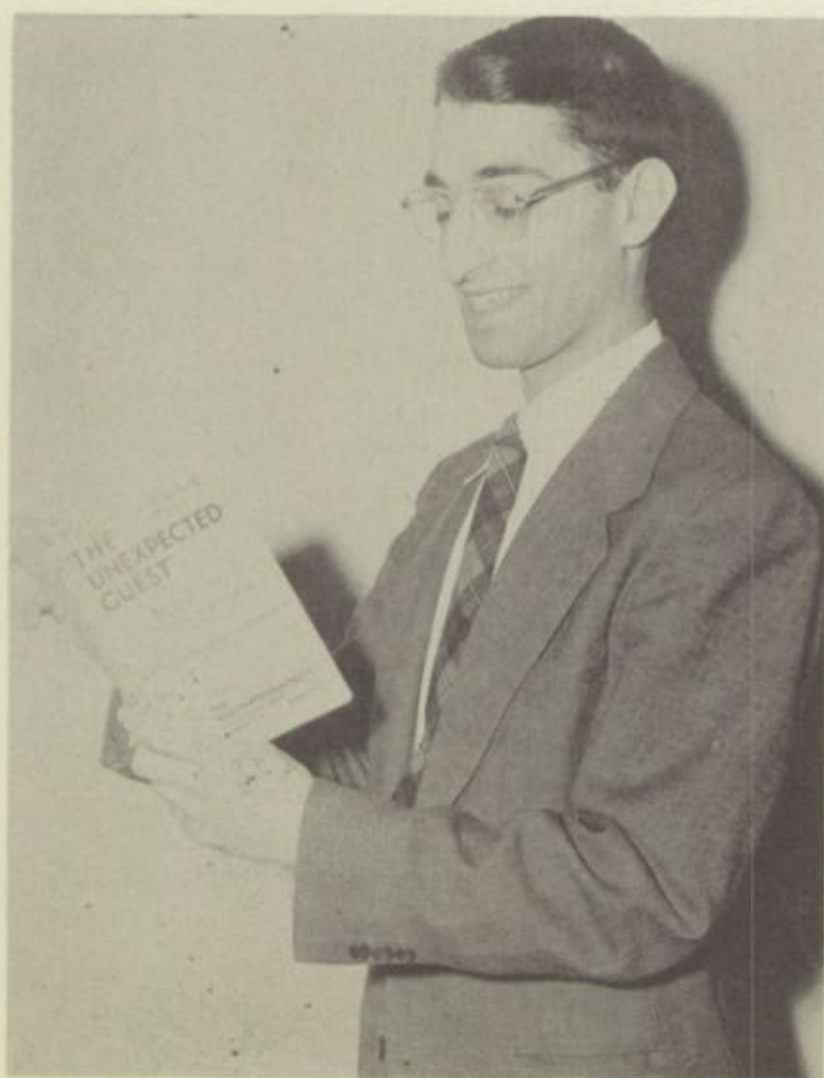

The play takes place in the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Upton. Mr. Upton has just made his million and Mrs. Upton sees her opportunity to become the society leader of her city by having a big dance and inviting the renowned Hindu Prince poet to be the distinguished guest. The Upton's two children, Eleanor and George, are home from college on vacation. Very suddenly, Harry Huston, a fraternity brother of George's drops in for an unexpected visit with George. Meanwhile, the Prince telegraphs the Upton's that he will be unable to be present. George takes the telegram and he and Harry begin fooling around with a turban and Mrs. Upton walks in and sees Harry. She immediately mistakes his identity and so the news gets around that the Prince has arrived.

The dance begins and the "Prince" gets along very nicely. He is making a hit with Eleanor whom he really came to see. Eleanor and her boyfriend, John Blowing, have a half quarrel after Krumley, the detective, tries to make love to her and the "Prince" rescues Eleanor.

Later in the evening, Eleanor receives a telegram from the real Prince saying that he will be able to come after all. She thinks the telegraph company is crazy because the Prince has already arrived. But the real Prince arrives, much to the amazement of the two boys--George and Harry. After the boys caught the real Prince and tied him up securely--so the boys thought--the Prince enters the same room with Harry. After a scramble, the true identity of the Prince is revealed. He is not a Prince but a jewel thief.

Harry is planning to return to college without telling his identity but Eleanor learns of it. Eleanor has a big fight with John and they break up. Then Harry and Eleanor decide that they would be happier together.

"OUR

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

On the nights of November 15 and 16, the junior class of Ada High School presented Our Hearts Were Young and Gay, a comedy in three acts.

The cast of characters in order of their appearance was:

Steward.....	Wayne Fleming
Mrs. Skinner.....	Jean Warthman
Cornelia Skinner.....	Patsy Spellman
Otis Skinner.....	Fred Runser
Emily Kimbrough.....	Anabel Motter
Purser.....	Ed Baker
Stewardess.....	Gloria Nichols
Dick Winters.....	Bill Gilbert
Admiral.....	George Wissinger
Harriet St. John.....	Mary Griffith
Winifred Blaugh.....	Peggy Clark
Leo McEvoy.....	Bob Hooper
Inspector.....	Shirley Tinsler
Therese.....	Antoinette Anastasi
Madam Elise.....	Dorothy Houser
Monsieur de la Croix.....	Bill Bale
Window Cleaner.....	Tom Tallman

Cornelia and Emily, teen-age girls wanting freedom from their parents, are making a trip to Paris. The famous Otis Skinner and his wife, Cornelia's parents, are also going to Paris on another ship. The girls have been given "safety pockets", little bags which they wear under their skirts, to keep their valuables in. As soon as they are alone the girls try to get rid of their "safety pockets" but they become entangled in a chain of events which merrily include Dick and Lee, American boys, and Harriet and Winifred, two English girls.

When it is the day to leave the ship Cornelia contracts a case of the measles and has to be smuggled past the health inspector.

Once in Paris the girls go to a rooming house run by Madam Elise and her daughter Therese. Here, they finally get rid of the "safety pockets" only to receive a new set from Mrs. Skinner. Cornelia takes acting lessons from Monsieur de la Croix who doesn't care for Cornelia but hopes to use her father's influence for his own popularity. Lee and Dick come to take the girls out to dinner and Cornelia discovers that she has been attacked by bedbugs. Emily and Cornelia's mother try to cover up for her, much to the amazement of the window washer, who can't quite understand the situation.

After the Paris vacation is over, and after a feeble attempt to lose the "safety pockets", Emily and Cornelia are homeward bound.

Mr. Albert Melkonian directed the play and Alva Rubenstine from Ohio Northern assisted. Mention should also be made of the many juniors who worked with tickets, stage, and properties, for without them there would have been no play.

INTERCLASS CONTEST

There was a lot of class spirit between the seniors, juniors, and sophomores on the day of March 7, 1952 for that was the day of the annual Interclass Contest. The traditional literary battle was for the coveted cup which contestants of each class would like to win for their classmates. The seniors and sophomores each had two firsts, but the seniors won by the number of points.

The Interclass Contest, one of the highlights of the year, is sponsored by the student council, and this year marked the thirtieth contest since its beginning.

The evening was ended by stunts from each of the three classes participating in the contest.

The following students participated in the program:

Essay:

Pursuit of Happiness
Are Sports Worthwhile?
The Power of Prayer

Gloria Nichols, Junior
*Robert Lamb, Sophomore
Janet Welsh, Senior

Reading:

Tobias Takes A Sleeper
She Goes to a Football Game
Gigglin' Lizzie

*Phil Gilmore, Senior
Anabel Motter, Junior
Mildred Baughman, Sophomore

Oration:

The Heritage of Youth
World Leadership?
Our Greatest Threat

*Joyce Heller, Sophomore
Glenn Ernsberger, Senior
Daniel Snyder, Junior

Short Story:

Free Room and Board
Give Me the Needle!
Prize of the Earth

Carlos Conley, Sophomore
*Bonnie Mansfield, Senior
Patsy Spellman, Junior

Special numbers given were:

Violin Solo
Vocal Duet
Trumpet Solo

Mary Markle, Sophomore
Joyce Harrod, Howard Klingler, Seniors
Sam Weishampel, Junior

INTERCLASS BANQUET

"Painting the Clouds with Sunshine" was the theme of the Interclass Banquet held on March 8 in the multiple purpose room. The delicious dinner was prepared and served by the women of the Sugar Grove Methodist Church.

All six classes were represented on the program following the dinner. Jeanne Dodge was Mistress of Ceremonies with Phyllis Reams, Bob Hooper, Russell Peper, Sally Smith, Jean Hawes, Darlene Yinger, Alice Warthman, Mr. Bowden, and several members of the eighth grade participating in the program.

PRINCE OF PEACE CONTEST

On November 11, the annual Prince of Peace Contest was held. This year the contest was divided into two groups with the juniors and seniors at the Presbyterian Church and the sophomores at the Church of Christ.

The local contest winners were Glenn Ernsberger and Joyce Heller with William and Emily Bale as respective alternates.

In the County Contest, Joyce Heller won top honors and Glenn Ernsberger won second place.

Since she was first in Hardin County, Joyce was eligible to compete in the District Contest, in which she placed third.

Other participants were:

William Bale
Emily Bale
Alan Combs
Glenn Ernsberger
Joyce Heller
Linda Main
Mary Markle
Tom Tallman
Jo Ann Tressel

SENIOR SCHOLARSHIP TESTS

On Saturday, February 23, five senior students went to Kenton for the annual Senior Scholarship Tests. These tests include the following subjects: English, history, mathematics, science, and reading.

Glenn Ernsberger placed seventh in Hardin County and Janet Welsh received honorable mention.

Those who took the tests were:

Peeter Mannik
Phil Gilmore
Jeanne Dodge
Glenn Ernsberger
Janet Welsh
Bonnie Mansfield

CLASS HISTORY

Just twelve short years ago in September, 1940, the members of the class of 1952 began their journey into the unknown world of learning. Eighteen of these students started their schooling in Ada. Through these years we have gained and lost many other students.

With the two teachers, Miss Wehe and Miss Reese, as our guiding lights, we became acquainted with this new and strange atmosphere. Reading and writing were our outstanding subjects.

When we returned the second year we were greeted by Miss Povenmire and Miss Whitworth who taught us many new things. In this grade we learned to count and to say the alphabet with accuracy.

Miss Whitworth and Miss Kelly (now known as Mrs. Mayhorn) introduced us to the third grade and we were now half-way through our grade schooling (and were eager to journey on).

During the fourth year we were led by our able advisers Mrs. Coleman and Miss Wagner (now known as Mrs. Hites). For the first time we were given the chance to write poetry. Music also made a big hit with the students.

Miss McWilliams and Mrs. Hites helped us advance as we now had passed our fifth year and were about to begin our final year in grade school.

As we began this final year we were under the guidance of Miss Barrett and Mr. Zimmerman, our first male teacher. We had finally reached the top for which all grade "schoolers" strive. During this year, we were invited to visit the high school and we enjoyed the trip very much, but were astounded by the changing of classes, ringing of bells, and the lack of recesses. The most outstanding event of our entire grade school days was the sixth grade promotion. Now to the most loved teachers and memories of our first six years, we said farewell.

On September 9, 1946, a class of 41 started their last half of the twelve years training. Our class not only was the youngest in the high school, but also the smallest. We were all rather shy in this strange building and most of us got lost the first few days in trying to find our different classes. Mrs. Tallman, who was our homeroom teacher, helped us immensely by being so understanding. As class officers, we elected Ronnie Parshall as president; Clair Kindle, vice president; Howard Klingler, secretary-treasurer; and Bonnie Mansfield student council representative. We were now allowed to attend Junior-Hi parties and to play in the orchestra and band.

Mr. Banks was our adviser as we started our second year. We elected as our eighth grade officers; Howard Klingler-president; Ronnie Parshall-vice president; Dorothy Jump-secretary; Judy Moe-treasurer; and Janet Welsh-student council representative. We attended our last Junior-Hi parties and the boys had now played their last of Junior-Hi sports.

In the year of 1949, a class of 34 started their last four years of required education. Miss Archibald was our ninth grade adviser with Joe Klingler-president; Jeanne Dodge-vice president; Phil Gilmore secretary; Janet Welsh-treasurer, and Glenn Ernsberger-student council representative. The girls were initiated into G.A.A. and F.H.A. while the boys became members of F.F.A. The boys were given a chance to try out for the high school sports. We could now attend the Senior High parties and dances. Many of us were members of the Purple and Gold and annual staffs.

Mrs. Hollinger and Mr. Pfiel greeted a class of 32 on September 7, 1949. We elected Glenn Ernsberger president, Janet Welsh vice president, Sally Allen secretary, Clair Kindle treasurer, and Joyce Harrod and Ronnie Parshall to student council.

and Ronnie Parshall to student council.

The boys now became members of Hi-Y and the girls became members of Y-Teens. In the spring we started to make money for the Jr-Sr Prom by selling homemade candy. As sophomores we were finally given the chance to compete in the Interclass Contest against the juniors and seniors. Our contestants were Glenn Ernsberger for the essay, Bonnie Mansfield for oration, Jeanne Dodge for short story, and Ronnie Parshall for the reading. We tied for second place with the seniors, but we gave the winners pretty good competition.

On September 11, 1950 a class of 32 entered their junior year with Mr. Suhr and Mr. Obenour as our advisers. Janet Welsh was elected president, Bonnie Mansfield vice-president, Howard Klingler secretary, Phil Gilmore treasurer and Glenn Ernsberger, Clair Kindle, and Jeanne Dodge as student council members.

As money making projects for the prom we sold candy, held bake-sales, sold cider at the football games, and collected sales tax stamps. We also had a food stand the day of the band concert, sponsored a movie, and gave our class play "Stardust" with Joyce Harrod and Neal Paugh taking the leads.

Again that important day came when we were to compete against the seniors and sophomores in the Interclass Contest. Glenn Ernsberger gave the essay, Joyce Harrod the oration, Jeanne Dodge the short story and Phil Gilmore the reading. We failed to win but we knew our contestants were at their best.

The final event of the year was the Jr-Sr Prom which will long be remembered. We chose as our theme "Starlit Street".

On September 9, 1951, a class of 33 were commencing their last and final year as students of Ada High School. Miss Crawford and Mrs. Baker (who was replaced by Mrs. Geary the second semester) served as our able counselors. We elected for our officers this year, Ronnie Parshall president, Janet Welsh vice-president, Jeanne Dodge secretary, and Dorothy Jump treasurer. Serving on student council were Phil Gilmore, Clair Kindle, Joan Ream, and Glenn Ernsberger who was elected as president.

As money making projects for the trip to New York and Washington D. C. we sold calendars, conducted a magazine campaign, sold greeting cards, managed a food stand at the band contest, sponsored a talent show, had a scrap drive and also a cookie sale.

The evening of March 7, 1952 was the last evening that would hold us in suspense for the winners of Interclass Contest. We chose as our contestants Janet Welsh, essay, Glenn Ernsberger oration, Bonnie Mansfield short story, and Phil Gilmore reading. This was the payoff because we not only won the Contest but also the stunt.

May 2 and 3 the senior class presented their play "Unexpected Guest" with Sonja Clay and Ronnie Parshall taking the leading roles and Mr. Melkonian as our director.

Our last big school dance was the Jr-Sr Prom which was held in our honor, May 10. Everyone who attended had a wonderful time.

Twenty-seven of us left for our trip May 15, and we feel it was a fitting conclusion to our high school days. Mrs. Geary and her husband accompanied us on the trip. During the year Russell Dearth left us for service with Uncle Sam but is receiving his diploma "in absentia."

We now say farewell to a wonderful school and grand instructors who have made our twelve years as enjoyable and worth while as possible.

CLASS WILL

Article I

We, the Senior Class of 1952, being of sound mind and body, establish this as our last will and testament. Even though this is our last will, we do not want you to forget us, for we feel we are as yet too young to be forgotten.

Article II

To the faculty we wish to extend our thanks for the patience and tolerance they had to have with us through the years. We leave to them a more peaceful school for the years to come.

Article III

To the junior class we leave the Senior home-room with all its possessions - - - the sewing machines, magazines and mallet. To them we also grant the honor and privilege of winning the Interclass Cup and stunt.

Article IV

We the undersigned, leave these, our most favored possessions to the following students:

Sally Allen wills her cheer-leading ability to Millie Baughman.

Jeanne Dodge leaves her piano playing ability to Jo Tressel.

To Alice Romick, Phyllis Reams leaves her wit.

Sonja Clay wills her shortness to Jack Suhr.

Martha Klingler leaves all her old gum on the bottom of the tables in senior home room.

Gene Preston bequeaths his bachelor complex to Ralph Spar.

To Dorothy Houser, Joyce Wolfley wills her "swing".

Peeter Mannick wills his hall monitor post to anyone strong enough to take it day after day.

Joan Ream leaves Ada Hi to join Dick.

Howard Klingler wills his way with women to Vaughn Carmean, and he hopes Vaughn has better luck.

Barbara Orders wills her Oldsmobile to Bud Routson.

Glenn Ernsberger bequeaths his great oratorical ability to Joyce Heller.

Cathy Gudakunst leaves her sweaters to the freshmen girls. Don't fight, Frosh, there's enough for everyone.

Clarence Garver leaves his slowness to Wayne Fleming.

Gloria Miller wills her way with men to Sandra Simon.

Bob Read leaves Ada Hi with a sigh of relief.

Joyce Harrod wills her soda-jerking to Russ Peper.

Clair Kindle leaves his love of raffles to anyone willing to carry on his earnest efforts.

Dorothy Jump bequeaths the title of football queen to any suitable girl of next year's class.

Joe Klingler wills his artistic talents to Joe Harrod.

Bonnie Mansfield wills her bass fiddle to anyone who likes to stand up.

Donald Van Atta wills his title of "The Little Dutchman" to Larry Ream.

Carol Neu leaves her cookie-selling ability to the Ada Bakery.

Neal Paugh bequeaths his quiet ways and unassuming manners to Bob Hitchcock.

Janet Welsh leaves her diamond - - - right where it is!

Don Zimmerly leaves Dorothy to no one. He's taking her with him.

Alan Harp wills his co-operativeness to the sophomores.

Dick Marshall leaves a path in the hall between senior home-room and the office.

Ronnie Parshall leaves the presidency of the senior class to anyone willing to take the job.

Phil Gilmore leaves Joyce May alone in the halls for the next two years.

To Sonny Bosch, Larry Dudgeon leaves his height.

Russ Dearth leaves his uniform to anyone - - he doesn't care who.

Signed and sealed this twenty-third day of May by

Janet Welsh

Howard Klingler

CLASS PROPHECY

Let us imagine that this is the year of 1962 A. D. During this year a contest was conducted in Ohio to determine the high school class that has gone the farthest since their graduation. The winner of the contest was none other than the 1952 graduation class of Ada High School. Every member of the class was honored by having his picture and great achievements published in the leading newspapers of Ohio.

Pictured first was Sally Allen who was chosen the model homemaker of '62. She is kept quite busy taking care of her three children and her husband.

Next was Sonja Clay who is now giving lessons to the National Baton Twirling Champion. She has almost given him up as hopeless.

Russ Dearth has been promoted to General and has taken over General Rideway's position as commander of U. N. Armies.

Jeanne Dodge is seen feeding chickens and milking cows on the Klingler farm.

Larry Dudgeon has a new '62 Mercury convertible with television and radar sets. Let's hope he doesn't get too interested in these diversions and try driving through a light pole.

Glenn Ernsberger has just gotten a patent on his new invention, an atomic fluid drive for cars.

Clarence Garver, after slow progress, is now head manager of the United Steel Corporation of Chicago.

Phil Gilmore has just returned from another visit to the moon. He is seriously thinking of going there to live.

Cathy Gudakunst has made quite a home out of that house trailer. Of course she had someone to help her.

Alan Harp, after getting his Doctor's degree, has taken the position of Professor of Mathematics at Jumbo, Ohio.

Joyce Harrod has traveled extensively through Europe and Asia for several years. She is to lecture to the senior social problems class of '62.

Clair Kindle has become a prominent young lawyer. At the present time he has a case before the Supreme Court on whether or not it is illegal to raffle various articles at public gatherings.

Howard Klingler has just graduated from Ohio State University where he majored in agriculture. He is now the instructor of the Flying Farmers.

Joe Klingler is manager of the Klingler Flower Gardens. He specializes in dandelions and petunias.

Martha Klingler, after declaring she was going to be a maid all her life, hasn't changed her mind.

Bonnie Mansfield, who is now a C. P. A. (Certified Public Accountant) is trying to add numbers and please her boss at the same time. Let's hope she succeeds.

Peeter Mannik has been voted top scientist of the year because he has designed an underground railroad which runs from coast to coast.

Dick Marshall has just signed the contract to rebuild the Federal Post Office building. He expects to complete it in the next twenty-five years.

Gloria Miller has gotten her degree in Home Economics and is employed at the Findlay College.

Gene Preston was just unanimously elected as mayor of Cleveland, Ohio. We hope it won't create too many headaches for him.

Phyllis Reams, being a secretary, married her boss ---- and now she chooses his secretaries for him.

Donald Van Atta, after wrestling for the navy, has now settled down to farming.

Joan Ream has been voted best cook of the year. She has created a new cake, one that doesn't have anything in it.

Janet Welsh, after becoming a Registered Medical Technician, has invented a new machine to make her work easier ---well almost--- she hasn't perfected it yet.

Carol Neu is living up to the standards of being a good housewife, at least her husband seems to think so.

Barbara Orders, now an efficient secretary, has returned to Ada Hi to become secretary to the superintendent.

Ronnie Farshall, after becoming a coach, is having his troubles trying to see that all his team keeps training rules.

Neal Paugh is the owner of a large garage. He teaches his mechanics by the new method ---- pictures.

Bob Read is a truck driver and he has yet to see the phantom of '62.

Joyce Wolfley is a full-fledged air line stewardess. She seems to like flying around in the clouds.

Dorothy Jump has been living a model life as the wife of Donavin Zimmerly on a large farm near San Antonio, Texas. Don specializes in oil wells while Dorothy tends the four children.

MEMORIES

As we look back across the years,

We see ourselves once more

As little children, timid and shy,

Entering the schoolhouse door.

We wondered then if ever we

Would grown up seniors make;

Yet all too soon we find ourselves

About to graduate.

Our class though few in numbers

Has kept the jobs well done.

We've scored in music, sports, and books,

And had our share of fun.

We've climbed the ladder rung by rung,

And now we proudly stand

Upon the threshold of this life;

Thanks to many a helping hand.

To parents and to teachers all

Who have helped us on our way,

Our sincere thanks and gratitude

We give to you this day.

Now as we leave old Ada High

Each to his own career,

We'll ne'er forget the friends we've made

And the memories stored up here.
